Description

Like the soap drama's on television with the endless cycles of repeated behaviour and the blame game – how do we retrieve ourselves from the Victim/Victimizer blame game tactics and WHERE “ON EARTH” DID THE V/V GAME COME FROM???

This is an experiential module giving a brief on the history as to the origins of the V/V Game and the Great Experiment.

- Discover where in our bodies it is embedded.
- Gain insight and understanding through discussion, role play, open forum, and applications of technique.

Informal and discursive in nature, discover your own soap opera in the context of the V/V game and how to re-code your own personal script.

Offered for beginners and Intermediate level
